FROM THE CLUB

Good evening and welcome to Lambert Park for another huge match up as we take on Wollongong Wolves tonight.

I can't fault the attitude and application of my squad as we continue to improve and develop week in week out at training and on match days.

The players are rising to each challenge before them and I can see them growing into the next generation of Hyundai A-League footballers each week before my eyes.

Tonight's challenge is no different, we face a strong Wolves setup, but I have every confidence in my players to fight for each ball and leave everything out on the park.

MATCH PREVIEW

It has been a season of so close yet so far for Sydney FC.

Robbie Stanton's young team have played an exciting and quality brand of football but have dropped points in tight matches where only one or two mistakes have cost the game.

The young Sky Blues are finding their feet in this competition and with twelve weeks to go there is still plenty of time for them to turn their season around.

Wollongong Wolves are the challengers this week and are another team in desperate need of a win to keep their season and slim finals hopes alive.

The addition of former Central Coast Mariners captain Nick Montgomery to an already strong line-up has put extra pressure on the South Coast based side to win now.

They will need to contain the energetic approach from Sydney FC who will be looking to collect all three points.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3 - Sydney FC 3 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

Hasan Jalloh has helped Bonnyrigg White Eagles snatch a last gasp 3-3 draw in their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash against Sydney FC at Bonnyrigg Sports Centre on Saturday.

Jalloh's 88th minute strike was the final twist in a see-sawing game which featured Bonnyrigg fighting back after trailing Sydney FC on three separate occasions.

The young Sky Blues would've felt they'd done enough when Charles Lokolingoy put his side ahead in the 82nd minute to make it 3-2 after earlier goals from Will Mutch and Bai Antoniou.

However it wasn't to be as the White Eagles rallied through goals from Martin Lo and Jalloh's incredible second half double.

Wollongong Wolves 2- Rockdale City Suns 0 at WIN Stadium

A Yuzo Tashiro double gave Wollongong Wolves a crucial 2-0 win against Rockdale City Suns during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

The former Japan international striker wasn't going to let the Wolves fall to their third consecutive loss and delivered a starring role in the win as his side picked up a much needed three competition points,

For the second straight week Rockdale were well below their best as they suffered only their second loss of the season.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC ended their run of four consecutive draws with an emphatic 6-0 win over Bonnyrigg White Eagles last Saturday and will be aiming to keep the goals flowing at home to Wollongong Wolves at Lambert Park on Saturday.

Sydney's fourth win of the season leaves them behind fifth-placed APIA Leichhardt on goal difference and with a series of winnable fixtures coming up David Zdrilic's side will want to cement their position in the right half of the table.

However it won't be easy against a Wollongong outfit that have claimed the scalps of Sutherland Sharks and Hakoah Sydney City East in recent weeks. The Wolves need a good result especially having dropped points to Bonnyrigg and Rockdale in their last fortnight.
